fishing planet lucky start pack

This pack is a rip off. None of the items appear in your inventory. Do not buy!! 7 day pond passes do NOT exempt you from paying travel cost, myself and others seem to have beleived this was the case when we purchased the pack, would have been nice if they would clarify this in the description instead of us having to find out for ourselves after purchasing it. it's sad that video game developers have lost touch with how things were and have gotten into this stupid trend of "in game purchases". I'd rather have paid $80 for this game and not had the extra gear ect, then to get it for free and have to spend money on basically what amounts to "renting" the game with "premium" accounts that expire.. For any of you that have bought this DLC package, you MUST first exit the game and the lake you are in, and you will get the DLC. So stop with the bad reviews.... didnt get lv 10 or dont know who to do it. Wow! This is as real as it gets. This is not like a game or VR,you are really there but with out the smell or bug bits haha. Get this and you will not believe your eyes. Amazing detail, real fishing with others or your buddies.. i bought this at level 2 and i am now level 9 about 3 days later. This one is a no brainer, cheap , good gear to try bass fishing which is fun and they put up a great fight. 7 days premium will help you level. just get it.. I own this DLC and would have really loved to purchase it for a friend, however, because I already own it...it gives me no other options, I cannot click on it to purchase for my friend...good idea gone bad :(

$1.50 for 7 days premium haha ill take that no problems. "POND PASSES - 7 days of unlimited access to some of the top predator fishing destinations!

Mudwater River (Missouri)

Emerald Lake (New York)

Rocky Lake (Colorado)"

note : You still have to pay Travel fees for the 3 destinations unless that is a bug ??

I thought unlimited access meant unlimited access :) now im limited by my ingame wallet :)

. I didnt receive the items, or premium or anything else yet... wondering when i get it
